Season Theme of Distance—Devotion explores need for love, loyalty and shared experiences in times of division

Naples, FL (July 11, 2022) – Artis—Naples, home of The Baker Museum and the Naples Philharmonic and Southwest Florida's premier destination for the visual and performing arts, today announced its full 2022-23 visual and performing arts season. The season's schedule reflects Artis—Naples' commitment to its multidisciplinary mission and world-class offerings in the visual arts, classical music, symphonic pops, dance, touring Broadway productions, special presentations, holiday concerts and film.

CEO and President Kathleen van Bergen also announced Distance—Devotion as the season theme. "Each year, in planning the upcoming season, we explore concepts to enhance patrons' experience and understanding of Artis—Naples' multidisciplinary visual and performing arts programming by curating offerings that allow for a broader appreciation of the connectedness between art forms," van Bergen said. "We identify a theme that serves to guide curious attendees thoughtfully through their artistic choices and experiences over the course of the season. This year, as we consider a world that has dramatically changed over the past three years with so many of us separated from one another by division and maladies, the importance of love, loyalty and shared experiences has never been greater. Our 2022-23 season theme, Distance—Devotion, reflects and amplifies this dichotomy."

In exhibitions like Love Stories from the National Portrait Gallery, London and Envisioning Evil: "The Nazi Drawings" by Mauricio Lasansky as well as musical compositions like Kevin Puts' The Brightness of Light, a meditation on the relationship between Georgia O'Keeffe and Alfred Stieglitz, or Prokofiev's Romeo and Juliet, Artis—Naples curates a visual and performing arts season that reflects both the positive and negative sides to the intense emotions that can so often animate our lives in a variety of unexpected ways.

"We welcome everyone to participate in the 2022-23 season, which is thoughtfully crafted, creative and wildly varied, and one in which we can explore together works of art that inspire us to overcome the distance—real or perceived—between us and to reflect on the importance of love and devotion in our worlds," van Bergen said. "An intrinsic part of our multidisciplinary mission is to provide artistic experiences across the creative spectrum, and this season's breadth and depth of programming brings that commitment vibrantly to life."

"We are excited to present our Naples Philharmonic Masterworks and Pops series, which feature, among other great artists, two legendary divas with Renée Fleming performing on the Masterworks series and Kelli O'Hara performing on the Pops series, and presentations including the Kat & Dave Show with David Foster and Katharine McPhee, Renée Elise Goldsberry and Kristin Chenoweth," said Executive Vice President, Artistic Operations David Filner. "Add to that the wide variety of excellent programming across all our performance series, including the return of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra with Zell Music Director Riccardo Muti, the return of The Cleveland Orchestra with Music Director Franz Welser-Möst and the Florida debut of the Berliner Philharmoniker with Chief Conductor Kirill Petrenko—and 2022-23 promises to be another exceptional season."

"The Baker Museum this season presents a truly significant range of exhibitions," said Museum Director and Chief Curator Courtney McNeil. "From a landmark exhibition of the late works of Helen Frankenthaler to stunning installations by Korean-born artist Ran Hwang; from a groundbreaking exhibition presenting masterpieces from the National Portrait Gallery, London, to a new edition of our hugely popular Naples Collects, which allows us to share with our visitors some of our community's most prized possessions—we are very proud of what this season represents."

ARTIS—NAPLES

Home of The Baker Museum and the Naples Philharmonic, Artis—Naples is unique among cultural institutions nationwide, equally dedicated to both the visual and performing arts featuring artists of global distinction.

KIMBERLY K. QUERREY and LOUIS A. SIMPSON CULTURAL CAMPUS

Led by CEO and President Kathleen van Bergen and Sharon and Timothy Ubben Music Director Andrey Boreyko, we offer audiences more than 800 paid and free events annually within a variety of venues and settings situated throughout the 8.5-acre Kimberly K. Querrey and Louis A. Simpson Cultural Campus. Artis—Naples welcomes thousands of visitors each year for a broad array of artistic and educational opportunities perfect for audiences of all backgrounds and interests. The cultural campus is home to five buildings, including two performance halls (Frances Pew Hayes Hall and Myra J. Daniels Pavilion), The Baker Museum, the Toni Stabile Education Building and the Kohan Administration Building.

In the 2014-15 season, Andrey Boreyko assumed the title of music director and serves in this capacity for Artis—Naples. Boreyko is internationally recognized as one of the most exciting and dynamic conductors working today. This appointment, which concludes in 2022, is his first American post.

The Wall Street Journal says van Bergen and Boreyko have ushered in “an impressive new phase” for classical music in Southwest Florida.

NAPLES PHILHARMONIC

The Naples Philharmonic has long been recognized as one of the cornerstones of Southwest Florida's arts community. As part of Artis—Naples, the Naples Philharmonic performs more than 140 orchestral and chamber music concerts, as well as opera and ballet, education, community and special event concerts annually between September and June in the 1,477-seat Hayes Hall, the 283-seat Daniels Pavilion and around the Southwest Florida region.

Jack Everly is Principal Pops Conductor and in the 2021-22 season celebrates 12 years in this role, bringing pops performances that celebrate music in its many forms. In 2017, Romanian conductor Radu Paponiu was named assistant conductor of the Naples Philharmonic and director of the Naples Philharmonic Youth Orchestra, and in 2019, he was promoted to associate conductor.

THE BAKER MUSEUM

The Baker Museum is one of the foremost fine art museums in Southwest Florida. The museum hosts several traveling exhibitions annually to complement installations of works from its permanent collection. Comprising more than 4,000 objects, the museum's broad holdings of 20th- and 21st-century art reflect the generosity and commitment of area collectors. Of particular strength are The Baker Museum's collections of American and Mexican modern art and significant gifts from the personal collection of Olga Hirshhorn.

With more than two decades of collecting and exhibiting, the museum is dedicated to stewardship and scholarship from both its growing permanent collection and outside sources. At the same time, The Baker Museum seeks out the best traveling exhibitions from the leading arts institutions in the world—including recently the Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art and the Smithsonian Institutions—to enrich the Southwest Florida community.

In fall 2020, Artis—Naples celebrated the opening of an 18,000-square-foot expansion of The Baker Museum, designed by Weiss/Manfredi Architecture/Landscape/Urbanism, that created new spaces for multidisciplinary exploration and social interaction.

EDUCATION AND COMMUNITY

In addition to creating and presenting visual and performing arts, Artis—Naples provides robust education and community activities for students of all ages. Each season thousands of Collier County Public Schools interact with Artis—Naples education programming both on its cultural campus and in classrooms. The Lifelong Learning program provides engaging lectures and study opportunities for adults seeking to engage more deeply with the arts.

The Friends of Artis—Naples, with more than 3,400 households who give $75 or more, offers activities, travel experiences and events geared toward creating a deeper relationship between patrons and the arts.

In 2017, Artis—Naples acquired the Naples International Film Festival (NIFF), expanding its film offerings and providing a platform for the festival's continued excellence and growth. In 2019, NIFF was named one of MovieMaker magazine's "Top 25 Coolest Film Festivals in the World," and in 2022 it celebrates its 14th year in the community.
